

Sinclair is well within their rights to use the airwaves they have purchased for airing whatever they want, that does not violate standards for conduct and decency. We as Americans also have the ability to turn off the TV and get the government out of our life and make our own decisions that hurt no one else.